

Words from the Editor-in-Chief

The International Journal of Science, Applications And Prosperity (IJSAAP) is a multi-disciplinary journal covering a broad and complementary spectrum of disciplines. It includes and not limit to the following:

- 1) Medicine
- 2) Pharmaceutical Sciences
- 3) Dentistry
- 4) Physical Therapy
- 5) Veterinary Medicine
- 6) Biotechnology and Biological Sciences
- 7) Mathematics, Engineering, and Computer Sciences
- 8) Economics and Management
- 9) Decision sciences
- 10) Environmental Science and Energy
- 11) Agricultural Science
- 12) Literature and Human Sciences

As such, IJSAAP aims to promote science and make it accessible to the knowledge seeker. The IJSAAP journal is a junction between different disciplines, aiming to ensure our society's prosperity and offer the scientific community a place to share and connect. In addition, the journal provides professors, researchers, doctoral students, and professionals with a hub for the state of the art and progress achieved, as well as avenues for improvement and development in the various disciplines it covers.

We want to thank the authors who, through their dedication and preservation, seek to contribute to the ease and progress of science by carrying out studies and seeking to share their results with the scholarly community.

We warmly invite all passionate researchers, scholars, and experts to participate and actively contribute to our inaugural IJSAAP issue. Your valuable insights, innovative research, and groundbreaking discoveries can shape the foundation of our journal and foster a vibrant knowledge exchange community. By sharing your expertise, you contribute to the intellectual discourse and inspire future generations of scientists and professionals.
